Credai Offers to Bring Co-Developers, Investors into Delayed NCR Projects

Mumbai: Realty developers' apex body the Confederation of Real Estate Developers' Association of India, or Credai, has offered to bring in its member and non-member developers as investors or co-developers into delayed or stuck projects, particularly in the National Capital Region. Credai has held a series of meetings with political leadership in Uttar Pradesh and presented a bouquet of options to the government, said a release. The main thrust of these options is to bring in credible and resourceful developers in to complete the projects. OUR BUREAU
